

FOR SALE

The Old Jail

128 W. Broadway
Jim Thorpe PA 18229

SALE PRICE: $750,000

Building:

Year built: 1871

Architect: Edward Haviland

Dimensions: Width: 47' - Length: 96.9'

Walls: 24" - 36" thick

Total Sq. Ft.: 12,808 approx.

No. rooms: 72 rooms including 10 x 10 hallways

1st fl. - cell block, visiting room, warden's living room, warden's dining room & jail kitchen 4,547 sq. ft.

2nd fl. - cell block & warden's bedrooms, women's cells 3,214 sq. ft.

3rd fl. - 2 finished rooms 500 sq. ft.

Basement - 16 dungeon cells & 8 storage rooms 4,547 sq. ft.

Use: 1871 - 1995 Carbon County Prison

1995 - present museum tourist attraction

Front Door

9' x 5' wide

Weight: approx. 1,000 lbs.

Original doorbell, locks, peep hole and hardware

First Floor Cell Block

Floor: Black slate

Staircase: Original cast iron staircase with oak rail

Main corridor: 72' x 20'

25 cells - 12 8' x 13' cells on 1st floor & 13 cells on 2nd floor

Sink and toilet in each cell

Cell door: Double door entrance: Iron banded interior door - wood exterior door

Shower Room - 5 shower heads

Laundry Room - laundry tubs, stainless steel sink, washer/dryer hookup

Reproduction gallows to hang four men together

Hand Print on the Wall - Cell 17

Hand print reported to have been placed by accused Molly Maguire in 1878

Warden's Living Area

First floor

Living room - restored - present gathering room

Dining room - restored - present gift shop

Kitchen - Vulcan 8 burner stove with double oven

Commercial electric fry grill & commercial dish washer

2nd floor - Four bedrooms

2 full baths and 1 One half bath

3 Women's Cells with sink & toilet

Basement Jail - Dungeon

16 Cells

4 cells with metal doors

1 cell with toilet & sink

8 storage rooms

15 million btu reconditioned gas furnace

New chimney liner & reconditioned chimney

New furnace wiring; new circuit breaker panel

Concrete floors

Plastered walls

Parking: 15 cars adjacent to building

Taxes: $5,100

Brokers protected.

*Located in Old Mauch Chunk Historic District, Jim Thorpe, PA
On National Register of Historic Buildings*

Living Room

Cell block 2nd floor

Typical Cell

Bedroom

Basement Dungeon

Contact: Thomas E. McBride
570-325-3309

Old Jail Museum
Jim Thorpe, PA

History: Occupied as Carbon County Prison from 1871 to 1995. Purchased privately in 1995 and operated as a tourist attraction May 1995 to present.

Tours: Tours are conducted six days each week from Memorial Day through Labor Day and on Saturdays and Sundays through the end of October. Building closed from November to May.

Visitors: 2014 - 22,000 people from every State and 27 foreign countries.

Staff: Guides/docents present 45 minute tour; sell admission tickets and merchandise.

Gift Shop: Open during tour hours.

Ghost Tours: Conducted three Saturday nights in October.

Advertising: Brochures distributed through Pocono Mountain Vacation Bureau, Discover Lehigh Valley, at numerous attractions state wide and at local businesses.
Print ads taken in various publications.
Tour listing on various web sites.

Potential: Attendance could be increased by expanded visitor season, increased tour hours, additional advertising and social media coverage, installation of coffee shop in Old Jail, and additional ghost tours during summer

Information deemed accurate but not warrented.