

preservation

PENNSYLVANIA

WORKSHOP SERIES 2018

APRIL 20 | LANCASTER

Balancing Development and Protection:
Workshop for Local Government & Citizen Advocates
Lancaster History, 230 North President Avenue
8:30am - 4:30pm

Developers, planners, historic preservation advocates, all municipalities, and nonprofit organizations located in or working with Lancaster County are invited to this all-day workshop to discuss how to balance the need for development with the value of maintaining Lancaster's unique sense of place. Free to Lancaster residents; $25 other; member discount available.

MAY 16 | PHILADELPHIA

Investing in History: How Federal and State Tax Credits Make Historic Properties Viable
Center City location (TBD)
8:30am - 12:30pm

The federal Historic Tax Credit (HTC) was modified by 2017 tax legislation yet remains a powerful tool for preserving and rehabilitating historic buildings. This half-day workshop will feature tax credit experts and representatives from the State Historic Preservation Office discussing the strategies and mechanics of utilizing HTCs for development, including case studies and how to evaluate potential projects. Featured speaker: Renee Kuhlman, National Trust for Historic Preservation. Tickets $65; member discount available.

Attorney CLE, Real Estate CEU, and AIA LU credits anticipated.

Planning Partners: Preservation Alliance for Greater Philadelphia and Temple University Real Estate Institute

JUNE 14 | HARRISBURG

Byways to the Past: Cultural Resource Management
Keystone Building, 400 North Street
8:30am - 5:00pm

This all-day workshop is an opportunity for CRM consultants and PennDOT staff to learn about new policies and procedures, innovative technologies, and best industry practices. Opening plenary session will focus on the future of transportation in Pennsylvania. The remainder of the day will offer a two-track program for archaeologists and architectural historians. Vendor exhibition hall. Tickets $75; group & member discounts available.

[The Pennsylvania Conference on Heritage will return in 2019]
Sponsorships available. For more information or to reserve your spot, visit preservationpa.org or call 717-234-2310.